Real Estate Agency Relationships:

Owner's Agent - An owners agent under a listing agreement with the owner, acts solely on behalf of the owner. A owner can authorize a owner's agent to work with subagents, tenant's agents, subtenant's agents and/or transaction coordinators. A subagent is one who has agreed to work with the listing agent, and who, like the listing agent, acts solely on behalf of the owner. Owner's agents and subagents will disclose to the owner known information about the tenant/subtenant which may be used to the benefit of the owner. Individual services may be waived by the owner through execution of a limited service agreement.

Tenant's/Subtenant's Agent - A tenant's/subtenant's agent under a tenant's/subtenant's agency agreement with the tenant/subtenant, acts solely on behalf of the tenant/subtenant. Tenant's/subtenant's agents and subagents will disclose to the tenant/subtenant known information about the seller/owner which may be used to benefit the tenant/subtenant. Individual services may be waived by the tenant/subtenant through execution of a limited service agreement.

Real Estate Licensee - A real estate licensee can be the agent of both the owner and the tenant/subtenant in a transaction, but only with the knowledge and informed consent, in writing, of both the owner and the tenant/subtenant. In such a dual agency situation, the agent will not be able to disclose all known information to either the owner or the tenant/subtenant. The obligations of a dual agent are subject to any specific provisions set forth in any agreement between the dual agent, the owner, and the tenant/subtenant.
